

Customer warranties and protection of customer data

Apr 22, 2020

Note: This document covers only the section (subdomain) of the web page <https://investment.skillsplace.net/>

Customer (donor) warranties

1. Skillsplace guarantees that all donation funds from donors will be spent exclusively according to their intended purpose.
2. The company guarantees the anonymity of donations if the donor has met all the conditions necessary for assigning an anonymous status to donations.
3. Skillsplace guarantees timely donor support and user feedback.
4. The company guarantees a timely return of funds, in case the donor complies with the return rules and timely submission of an application for a refund.

Protection of customer (donor) data

The company does not transfer any donor data (including email addresses, postal addresses, names and surnames, preferences, regions of residence, contact details and so on) to anyone.

The company processes all data received during donations and fundraising campaigns on Skillsplace independently and does not transfer it to third parties for processing and / or for feedback or statistics.

Any information we received on the email ad789087@outlook.com regarding the <https://investment.skillsplace.net> section is not transmitted to third parties.

Please note that we do not store your banking information (data) on our website.

Additional information about the data that the payment system collects and about security can be found on their official pages and links to it will be attached here (after the company signs an agreement with the payment system for servicing).

Recurring Payment and Bank Card Data Retention Policy

At the section (subdomain) of the web page <https://investment.skillsplace.net/> we do not provide Recurring Payments.

According to our policy, we also do not store your bank data and the data of your payment (bank) cards on our website (in the "Investments and Donations" section) and in our databases.

Links

This document is an integral part of documents from the "Documentation" section of this website, our Cookie policy, Privacy policy and Terms and Conditions, as well as principles of contract law and common law.

Regards A.Denys,
Skillsplace ©, 2020